CALENDAR

OF EXPIRING COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS

1984

Province of British Columbia

POLICY AND RESEARCH

December 1983

FOREWORD

The Calendar of Expiring Agreements is a compilation of major collective agreements in British Columbia which are scheduled to expire in the coming year. The publication includes those expiring agreements which cover 25 or more employees.

The total number of agreements and employees covered by expiries listed in the Calendar likely understates to some extent the bargaining activity to be expected during 1984. First, it is not possible to anticipate bargaining which will arise from first-contract negotiations where a trade union has been newly certified by the Labour Relations Board. Second, at the time data for the Calendar was being assembled in November 1983, a number of collective agreements were in the process of being re-negotiated. Some of these renewed agreements will likely expire in 1984, but at the time of publication it was not known which of them will be up for negotiation again in the coming year. A revised list of upcoming expiries is published each month in the Labour Research Bulletin.

The information contained in the Calendar was compiled by Fern Hegan and typed by Sheila Twilley both of the Policy and Research Branch. Our thanks are extended to employers and unions who co-operated in providing expiry information to the Branch.

INTRODUCTION

A total of 373 collective agreements covering 25 or more employees will expire in British Columbia during 1984. These expiries cover 164,321 employees in the province. The number of expiries scheduled to be renogotiated is much smaller than the number reported in the 1983 Calendar (554) and cover about 38% fewer employees than did last year's list of expiries (268,355). It should be noted that one of the reasons for the relatively low number of collective agreements expiring in 1984 is that some agreements must be approved by the Compensation Stabilization Commissioner and other agreements were not renegotiated.

The largest expiry in 1984 is the agreement between the Construction Labour Relations Association and the 17 Building Trades Unions covering 33,300 employees. This 24 month agreement terminates on April 30, 1984. Other large expiries include the two-year agreement between the Health Labour Relations Association and the Health Sciences Association covering 5,500 workers which runs out on March 31, 1984 and the school district agreements between the B. C. School Trustees Association and the B. C. Teachers' Federation which covers a total of 33,000 teachers and expires on December 31, 1984.

About 78 percent of the collective agreements expiring during the coming year are two-year contracts which have been in effect since 1982. There are 272 twenty-four month agreements up for renegotiation (see Table 1). The proportion of expiring two-year agreements in 1984 is about the same as that shown in the 1983 Calendar (75.3%) and the 1982 Calendar (81.3%). The number of employees covered by expiring two-year agreements is 104,383.

The two months in which the largest number of collective agreements are scheduled to expire are March (with 59 expiries) and December (with 53 expiries). The next busiest months on the bargaining calendar are April and June with 38 expiries and 37 expiries respectively (See Table 2A). About 60% of the expiring agreements will run out by mid-1984.

The reader should be aware that this years Calendar provides a more detailed breakdown of industry divisions. In 1983, there were four major industry divisions whereas this year there are nine industry divisions. Eventually, this finer industry breakdown will be available for all industrial relations data provided by the Policy and Research Branch. The industry group with the largest number of expiries in 1984 is Manufacturing with 186 agreements covering 28,027 employees. The Public Administration sector has the second highet number of expiries (34) but only covers 13,064 employees. Although, there are only 14 expiries in the Construction Industry these agreements cover 40,115 employees.

Table 3 of this Calendar contains a chronological list of 1984 expiries by month. Individual expiries are listed by industry in Table 4. Employee totals for federal jurisdiction expiries include only employees in British Columbia.

Below is a list of major collective agreements due to expire in 1984 which cover 500 or more employees.
